2021 Accreditation Site Visit Team

---

October 12 and 13, 2021

Superintendent/President's Welcome

On behalf of the Citrus Community College District Board of Trustees and the entire campus community, it is my pleasure to welcome the 2021 Accreditation Site Visit Team to Citrus College.

Since 1915, Citrus College has been committed to promoting academic and career success in an affordable, accessible and safe learning environment. Over the years, we have continued to grow by setting and achieving goals that bring us – and the students we serve – one step closer to reaching our full potential.

For Citrus College, the goal to receive accreditation from the Accrediting Commission for Community and Junior Colleges is significant. This distinction tells students, employees and stakeholders that we are on the path to success. The past year, our campus community has worked together to provide evidence that we are meeting the accreditation standards. Led by co-leads Dr. Joumana McGowan and Dr. Cathrine Besancon, approximately 80 individuals contributed to the self-evaluation process, which culminated in the production of a 228-page Institutional Self-Evaluation Report.

While we are pleased with the report's findings, we are also eager to address the identified core inquiries during the site visit. Moreover, we look forward to receiving valuable input from peer professionals.

Once again, we are pleased that you will be visiting Citrus College, albeit in a virtual environment. We are grateful to each team member for their time and dedication. As an institution focused on self-improvement, we cannot wait to take Citrus College to the next level of excellence going forward.

Sincerely,

Greg Schulz, Ed.D.

Superintendent/President

Superintendent/President Dr. Greg Schulz

Dr. Greg Schulz currently serves as the Superintendent/President at Citrus College. With more than 21 years of leadership experience in the California community colleges system, Greg Schulz Ed.D. is known for being an enthusiastic and student-centered administrator. He has served as the president of Fullerton College since 2016. Prior to that, he held the same position on an interim basis for 10 months.

Dr. Schulz has also served in a variety of other educational leadership roles, including provost of North Orange Continuing Education (NOCE); dean of trades and industrial technologies at Long Beach City College; dean of instruction and student services of NOCE; interim director of fiscal affairs at North Orange County Community College District (NOCCCD); manager of administrative services at NOCE; and adjunct associate professor at California State University, Fullerton.

Dr. Schulz earned his associate degree in business administration from Fullerton College; his bachelor's degree in business administration/accounting from California State University, Fullerton; his master's degree in public administration from California State University, Long Beach; and his doctorate degree in educational leadership from the University of Southern California. He has also participated in a variety of leadership opportunities, including the Wheelhouse Institute on Leadership at the University of California, Davis; the American Association of Community Colleges Presidents Academy Summer Institute; and the Community College League of California Vineyard Symposium. In 2020, he received the Educational Leadership Award from A2MEND (African American Male Education Network and Development) for supporting the organization and championing the work of equity and inclusion for African American students.

Citrus College 2021 Accreditation Co-Chairs

Dr. Joumana McGowan

Vice President of Academic Affairs/Accreditation Liaison Officer
Accreditation Co-Chair

Dr. Joumana McGowan currently serves as the Vice President of Academic Affairs at Citrus College. She has more than 21 years of experience in higher education. Previously, she served as the associate vice president (AVP) of instructional services at Mt. San Antonio College (Mt. SAC) for six years. As the AVP, she provided administrative direction and oversight for eight separate divisions. Prior to this role, she served as the dean of business at Mt. SAC for over four years. Dr. McGowan was also previously the dean of instruction at Coastline College, where she oversaw the business, computer information systems, and career and technical education departments. Her teaching experience includes being a full-time tenured faculty member, business management department chair and faculty senate president at Fullerton College.

Dr. McGowan is a graduate of the California community colleges system. She holds an associate degree from Mt. SAC, a Bachelor of Science in Business Administration degree and a Master of Business Administration degree from California State Polytechnic University, Pomona; and a doctorate degree and graduate certificate in community college leadership from the University of Southern California. Dr. McGowan has participated in numerous leadership training programs and, in 2018, completed the Harvard University Institute for Management and Leadership in Education program.

Dr. Cathrine Besancon

Faculty, Art History
Accreditation Co-Chair

Dr. Cathrine 'Catie' Besancon, a southern California native, did her undergraduate studies at UCLA and her graduate work in Art History at USC. Professor Catie, as most of her students call her, has taught extensively at a variety of different schools (universities, liberal arts and community colleges), preparing her to help students successfully make the transition from a community college to four-year schools and to prepare students for the job market. She has been an integral part of the current Accreditation cycle.

With vast training in Art History, she teaches a variety of classes at Citrus College, including the introductory surveys 100A and B as well as more specialized classes. A dedicated professor, she received a teaching award at USC and has consistently received wonderful student evaluations. In all of her classes, she makes an effort to expose students to a range of different approaches to art history—covering topics including culture, gender, politics, race and religion—and challenges students to actively engage with the materials under study.

Members of Citrus College ACCJC Visiting Team

Sunita “Sunny” Cooke, Ph.D.

ACCJC Team Chair

Dr. Cooke has been involved in higher education in TX and in CA for over 25 years having served as a biology/biotechnology faculty member, director, dean, associate vice chancellor of workforce, and as a community college president in San Diego County for 14 years. Having served in multi-college districts, she now serves as a Superintendent/President of MiraCosta College (a single college district with four sites) reporting to a seven-member board of trustees. She is involved in state and national organizations focused on transformation of the community college to enhance student success and eliminate equity gaps. She serves on AACCC's DEI commission, and the board of CA Forward, and the National Academy of Sciences Board of Science Education (BOSE). She also focuses on supporting new CEOs within the CA Community Colleges System and leads the San Diego regional effort in workforce and economic development on behalf of the 10 colleges in the region. This year she was honored to be recognized as the ACCT Pacific Region's CEO of the Year.

Members of Citrus College ACCJC Visiting Team

Monica Green, Ed.D.

ACCJC Team Vice Chair

Monica Green, Ed.D. was appointed as the fourth Norco College President, in March of 2020. Prior to serving in an interim president role, Green led Riverside City College as the vice president of Planning and Development. Prior to RCC, she served as the dean and later vice president of the Norco College Student Services division from 2009 to 2018, where she developed, implemented, and evaluated student services programs to support student access, equity, and success. She provided leadership and direction in Admissions and Records, Assessment, Athletics, Career Center, Counseling, Student Financial Services, and wide variety of student support services. Green has 20 years of experience within the California community college system, six years as counseling faculty and 14 years as an administrator. As an advocate for higher education, she leads and provides support in the writing of grants, position papers, and delivering professional presentations. College and career readiness is of particular interest to Green, so over the years she has led many collaborative projects related to these areas.

She has been actively involved in the internal institutional self-evaluation process since 2006. For over eight years, she provided team leadership in Standard IIC and served on the Accreditation Steering Committee from Norco College's initial Accreditation through its most recent reaffirmation of accreditation in 2020. She served on the Riverside Community College District accreditation committee during the transition from a single college to multi-college district. She has served as an Accreditation Liaison Officer at Riverside City College. Previously she served on two peer review teams, one at a single-college district and the other included serving as a district peer review team member at a multi-college district.
