Philosophy

College news media are any news/feature publications issued under the name of the college, funded by the District, and produced by students as an integral part of instruction in the Communications program. It may include, but is not limited to, student newspaper reporting, magazine publication, broadcast news journalism, internet news journalism, and social/digital media. The term "editorial" refers to all content other than advertising.

College news media, as publications of the Communications Program curriculum, provide vehicles to train students for careers in mass communication. College news media also serve the entire college community by reporting the news, including college events and activities, providing a forum for comment and criticism, and encouraging free expression as guaranteed in the First Amendment to the Constitution of the United States.

College news media are valuable aids in establishing and maintaining an atmosphere of free and responsible discussion. College news media shall exercise editorial freedom in order to maintain their integrity as vehicles for free inquiry and free expression in the college community. At the same time, the editorial freedom of the college news media shall entail corollary responsibilities.

Each college newspaper or other news medium is published as a learning experience, offered under the Communications Program. The editorial and advertising materials published in each news medium, including any opinions expressed, are the responsibility of the student staff. The student news media publication of record shall maintain an editorial board. Under appropriate state and federal court decisions, these materials are free from prior restraint by virtue of the First Amendment to the United States Constitution. These procedures are adopted so as to encourage a responsible exercise of such freedom.
