BP 4250 PROBATION, DISMISSAL, AND READMISSION

References: Education Code Section 70902 subdivision (b)(3); Title 5 Sections 55031-55034

Probation

A student shall be placed on academic probation if he/she has attempted a minimum of 12 semester units of work and has a cumulative grade point average of less than a "C" (2.0).

A student shall be placed on progress probation if he/she has enrolled in a total of at least 12 semester units and the percentage of all units in which the student has enrolled, for which entries of "W," "I", "NC" and "NP" were recorded reaches or exceeds fifty percent.

A student on academic probation shall be removed from probation when the student's cumulative grade point average is 2.0 or higher. A student on progress probation shall be removed from probation when the percentage of units in the categories of "W," "I", "NC" and "NP" drops below fifty percent. Military withdrawals ("MW") are not included in the progress probation calculation.

Dismissal

A student who is on academic probation for two consecutive semesters and whose semester grade point average for both semesters is less than 2.0 shall be subject to dismissal.

A student, who is on progress probation, shall be subject to dismissal if fifty percent or more of the cumulative units recorded in each of two consecutive semesters have an entry of "W", "I", "NC" or "NP".

A student who is subject to dismissal may submit a written appeal in compliance with administrative procedures. Dismissal may be postponed and the student continued on probation if the student exhibits evidence of extenuating circumstances or shows significant improvement in academic achievement.

Readmission

Readmission may be granted, denied or postponed as specified in administrative procedures.

The Superintendent/President shall develop procedures for the implementation of this policy that comply with the Title 5 requirements.

The above standards shall be applied as the minimum standards of satisfactory progress for students who are recipients of federal and state funds administered by the College.
