IV. Action Items

A. Club Activations

1. Christian Challenge Club: It's primary objective shall be to cultivate disciples of Jesus and servant leaders through practical training, small-group leadership experience, and a Christ-centered community. Our goal is to equip students with the leadership skills and character needed to serve and lead in both the college setting and beyond.
2. Environment and Community Outreach (ECO) Club: Its objective shall be to empower students with a wide range of interests to be active in their broader community and build diverse skills by putting consistent environmental and civic volunteering at the forefront. Members will work to address local needs through conservation projects, sustainability workshops, civic advocacy, poverty assistance, and strengthening community support networks. Students from all academic majors and standings are welcome.
